Good morning. It's Tuesday September 29, 2015, and this is your first early morning briefing.

GLOBAL GOINGS-ON

Discovery Networks International has acquired Blood Lions from PBS Distribution. The documentary takes viewers on a journey inside South Africa's lucrative trophy hunting industry. It will first air across more than 200 countries and territories starting in late September.

Entertainment One is expanding its relationship with Ilana Frank and her production company ICF Films through a new three-year overall deal, with eOne serving as the studio, deficit financier and distributor on all of Frank's projects across all media. Since joining forces on a first-look basis in 2008, ICF and eOne have delivered long-running series to over 200 territories.

GRB Ent has inked a deal with Seven Network Australia for competition cooking show BBQ Pitmasters. The net follows Foxtel in acquiring the series for Free TV.

Electus International has picked up global distribution rights to the film Jerusalem, including television, SVOD, and Home Video. Narrated by Benedict Cumberbatch, the 45-minute production gives audiences a unique look at one of the world's most iconic cities.
